Dedicated to the memory of Dr. Daniel Stogryn,
Chemistry Professor from 1979-1998.

SISTER KATHLEEN KELLY
VICE PRESIDENT FOR THE DOHENY CAMPUS
DEAN OF THE ASSOCIATE IN ARTS PROGRAM

In 1981 Sr. Kathleen Kelly '59 joined Mount St. Mary's College as Dean of the Associate in Arts program. She helped to establish such programs as Alternative Access, Pre-Health Science, HOPE and the Doheny Options. She was also a driving force in the construction of McIntyre Hall, Our Lady of Mercy Chapel and the Sister Magdalen Coughlin Learning Complex. Sr. Kathleen is moving on to a new post as Assistant Provincial Superior for the Los Angeles Province of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet. She will remain in contact with the College as a member of the Mount Associates and in her new position.

It's so hard to say goodbye.

The Orientation festivities begin for Marissa Hernandez.

Wishing they were in Hawaii are O-Counselors Karren Dalinoc, Alan Santos, Jenny Villarosa, Kimberly Fine, Larissa Marquez and Patrick Beltran.

Taking a break from the heat, Michelle King and Laura Kester enjoy the pool.

While waiting for the concert to begin, Christina Bell, Vanessa Bell, Nicole McAndrew, Claire Oshima and Jasmine Mohiuddin take time to get to know each other.

Orientation

We Were Strangers...

During a busy Orientation Weekend, Shameka Smith and Betty Sanchez relax in the shade.

Orientation takes a lot energy. Michelle De La Cruz replenishes herself.

The Chalón Orientation Crew.

Comedy Central time at the Circle.

Starting Out On A Journey

Continuing a Doheny tradition, Claudia Almanza passes out flowers.

Showing off her moves, Michelle Blewster lets loose at the Dive-in movie.

Yummy, yummy, cotton candy!

Doheny freshmen dance their way through Orientation.

Aloha and welcome to the New Year!

On the sands of MSMC are hula girls and Julie Wennestrom and Alicia Carillo.

Getting a helping hand from her friends, Melissa Cruz moves into Brady Hall.

Amazing themselves at MSMC, these freshmen take part in the carnival games.

Talking about their day, Rachel Simonelli, Mary Joann Tamayo, Lara Nagle and Natalie Priester share a laugh.

Doheny students set up for the Haunted Campus.

Chalon Resident Assistants prepare for the new year.

Letting off some steam, Allan Santos is interrupted on his way to his room.

Enjoying their pizza, Gabriela Correa, Mayra Sandoval, Adabel Rodriguez, Melissa Klink and Sabrina Ward fill their stomachs.

Rollin' With The Homies

Taking a well needed break from their Orientation weekend duties are Lisa Villa and Donna Erfe.

Grooving' to the music, Veronica Flores moves to the beat.

Communicating with "life off the hill" is an essential part of college life.

Students get oriented to the new library on the Doheny campus.

Rocking & Rolling!

Showing it is all about teamwork, Adrianna Salazar and Christine Hernandez charge the ball.

Returning the ball to play Nicole Irizzary throws it with force.

Resting after a long game, the soccer team attempts to relax and cool off.

Like a pack of wolves, Marisa Reyes, Jenny Hernandez, Nicole Irizzary and Brigitte Lizarras charge the other end of the field.

What a great kick!

She's sure! Christine Hernandez lets Alicia Parker know she's open.

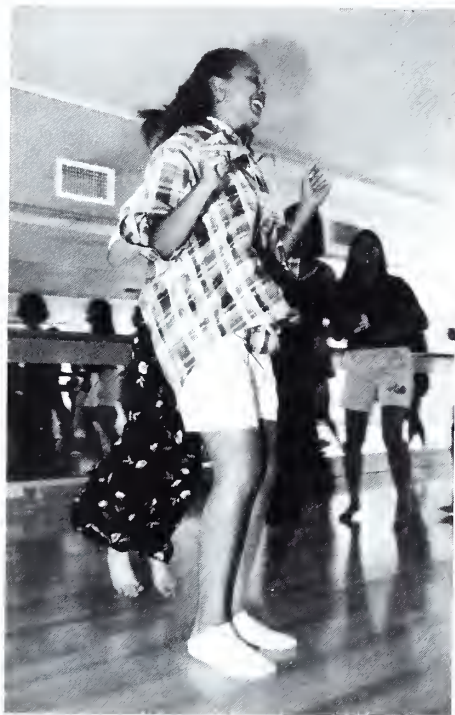

The Athenian Soccer team gets ready to take the field at UCLA

The team gathers around as Andrea Willer gives them a pep talk.

Doheny Gets Fit!

It's Broom Ball Time!

Vanessa Perry

Millicent Ongaco

"I think it was a fabulous idea and I'm happy that I was able to become a part of MSMC history."

"It was cool, I had fun!"

"I spent two hours doing my vision page, I hope someday I have kids so they can see it."

"The vision page was an awesome concept because I was able to express my hope for the future through the page."

I Had A Vision Of Love

Celebrate good times, come on!

While looking at the display, Scarlett Spagna and Natalie Margolis create visions for the future.

Students from Chalon and Doheny join together to share their visions.

"To a world torn by frenzied violence, Hildegard brings her view of a universe alive with divine wisdom and love." Dr. Nancy Fierro

One student "paints her vision" of a new world.

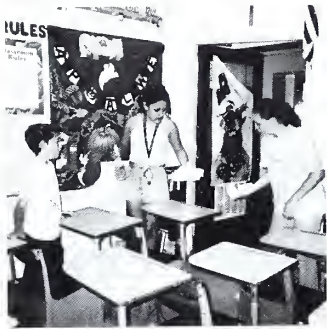

Horizons Day

Heal The World

Enjoying pizza after their service project these freshmen reflect on their efforts.

Cleaning desktops, Gabby Correa and Mayra Sandoval talk to a student from the school.

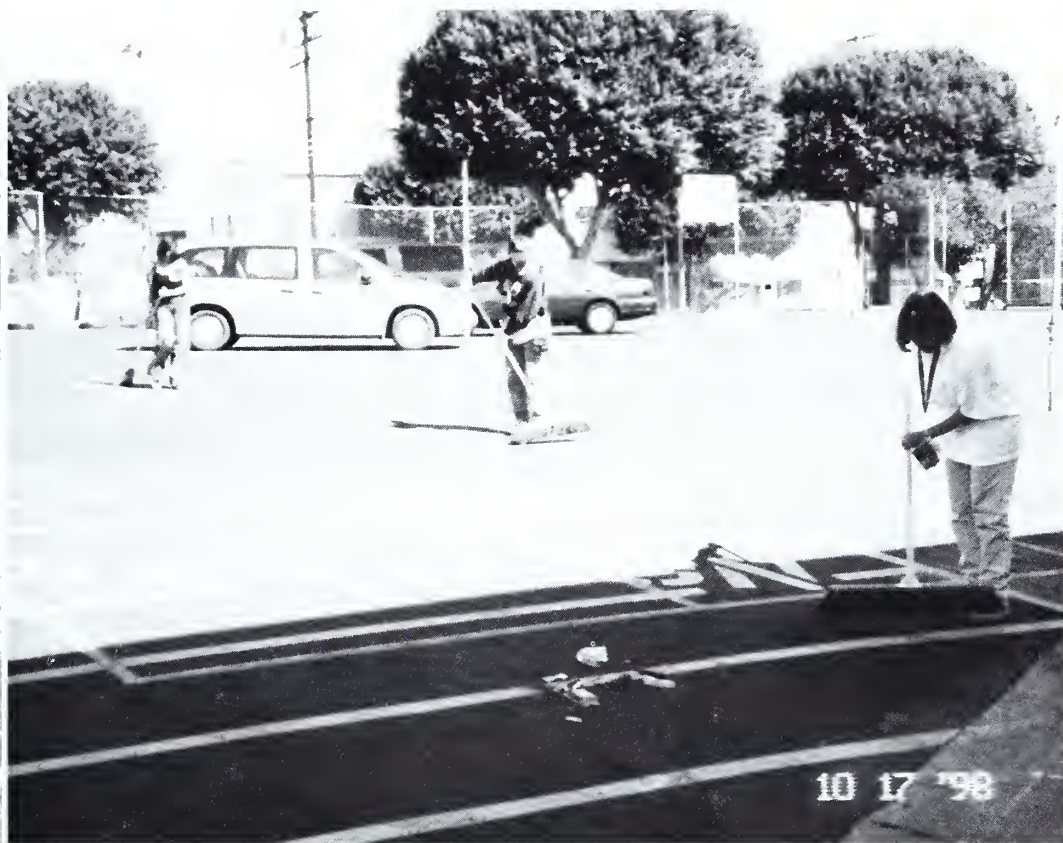

These freshmen hose and sweep the parking lot.

Assisting in storage efforts, Shenna Padilla, Tova Kirschner and Maria Agras box up supplies.

In the process of painting the fence Courtney Reyes and Mary Meng stop to look at their work.

Sweeping the parking lot at their assignment school, these young women work hard.

Hitting the books Asilki Jones, Vanessa Bell, Christina Bell and Elizabeth Garay clean and restock shelves at the Our Lady of Talpa school library.

Larissa Marquez

Chau Le

Tracy Tran

"It gave me a last chance to show my knowledge, pride, and love I have for my Filipino heritage. Even if it took a lot of time and a lot of patience, and a lot of sacrifice it was all worth it."

"The Filipino Expo increased the awareness of Filipinos and the rest of the Mount Community about the Filipino culture. Cultural awareness is always important to have to function better in such a diverse community such as our school."

"In Vietnamese culture, the Moon Festival is a celebration for the children. The young kids parade around with lanterns and enjoy the festival."

"In my culture, the Moon Festival is a special holiday for children. The celebration is a fun day for the kids. Having the festival helped expand the knowledge of the Vietnamese culture here on campus."

Around The World

As Karin Middleton picks up her order, Chau Le diligently wraps more spring rolls.

"May we take your order!"

During the Moon Festival, Huong Hu displays her vocal talent by singing Karaoke.

It Was A Monster Mash!

Sisters and students happily enjoy the Doheny festivities together.

Setting up the graveyard is hard work at the mansion.

Pumpkin carving was one Keneisha Burns' and Lashanta Crawford's favorite activities on Halloween.

These students wait in anticipation before the big splash occurs.

A freaky monster at Knott's Scary Farm scares Durgha Shanmugan silly, while Snahal Solankys laughs in excitement.

Many students participated in the events at Knott's Scary Farm.

Parents actively participate in Halloween by guiding their children through the maze.

You Say...

Nicole Casanova

"I think that the Doheny Haunted Mansion is a really fun experience for the children. It is a great idea and we should continue it."

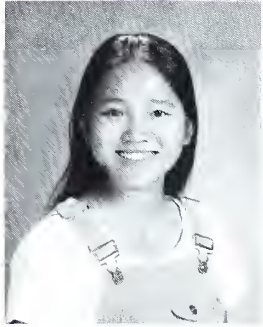

Suzi Schroeder

"I think Doheny Haunted Mansion is a great way to give back to the community. There's nothing better than seeing the smiles on all the children's faces."

Sister Kathleen Kelly

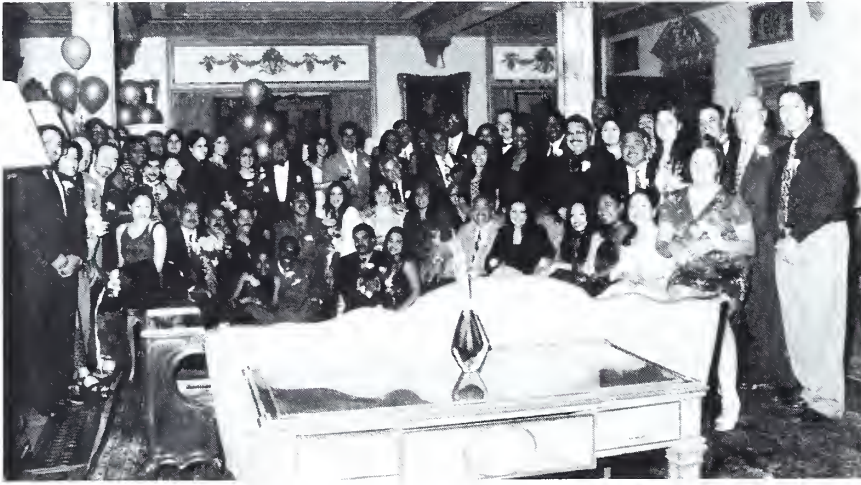

"It is our pleasure to provide the neighbor children with a fun and safe place to "Trick or Treat" on Halloween."

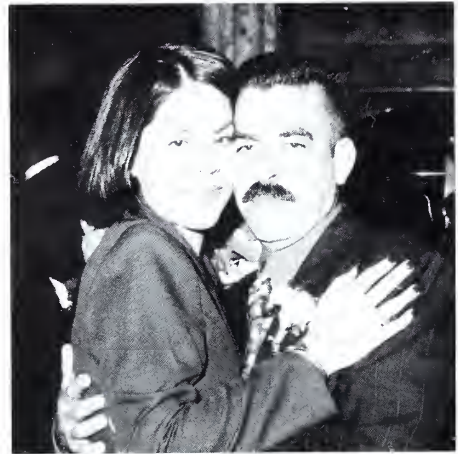

Huong Ho

"It's good to have a safe haven for the kids. Seeing the kids all dressed up makes me feel like a kid again. And I got 4 kisses from kids!"

Father/Daughter Dance

Telling her Dad how much she appreciates his support and love is Tiffanie Smith

So glad you came says Martha Armas to her dad.

The members of ASB who helped make this event a success: Bridgett, Myra, Tiffani, Haydee, Sandra, Maria, Teresa, Vanessa, Magui, Liz and Liza

A great couple Nashae Carter and her dad dance the night away.

Abigail Sanchez shares a light moment with daughters and dads.

The Burns enjoy themselves at the dance.

“Santa Claus Is Coming To Town!”

So many choices, it's hard to pick just one thing says Kate Hartsfield as she shops at the Holiday Boutique.

Holiday shopping comes up the hill.

"Santa's already here, so I better hurry up and get the place ready" exclaims Sara Martinez.

Aren't we creative says Suzi Schroeder

"We've all been very good this year Santa!"

Party Like It's 1999!

What's going on here? The sign says it all.

Yummy in Chastin's tummy!
Enjoying a home made egg roll Chastin Piernan ponders how many she can actually eat.

Good luck comes in three. Showing off their red envelopes, Erin Willey,
Christina Rivera and Nana Salazar smile as they protect themselves from the wind.

Work it Girl! Showing us what modeling is all about, Michelle de Belen gave the New Year's Festival a little spice.

It's the human fan! Demonstrating a Vietnamese Fan Dance, Tray Tran joins her fellow club members in entertaining MSMC.

Enter the dragon. Finally the years of negotiating the New Year Dragon climbed the hill to ward off all evil spirits from campus.

Going to the Chapel and Yanna Yu's gonna get married. Well, actually she's just modeling the traditional wedding attire of Vietnam.

You Say !

Snahal Solanky

Kim Dung Nguyen

Suzi Youssef

Shela Andres

"To be able to model one of the traditional dresses was an exposes to a culture I now know more about."

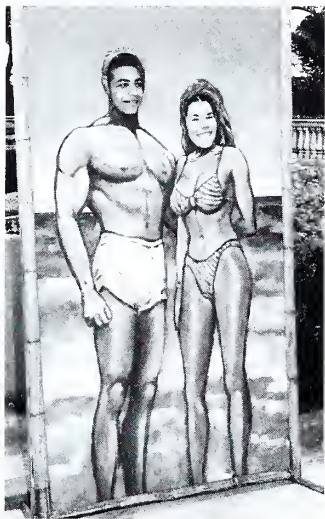

"I thought it was very well put together by all the VSA members, and everyone had a lot of fun enjoying the food, the dancers and the fashion show."

"It's a very graceful and proud culture. It transcends into all they do; in music, clothes, and in everything in the festival."

"Overall, the Dragon Dances, Vietnamese dances, and fashion show were great tools for MSMC to learn some of the Vietnamese culture."

Bringing a little piece of Hawaii to the Mount, these four dancers entertain their audience.

The huge grin on Jen Bolanis' face makes us think she has found the man of her dreams.

Megan Carnate

"Performing for Family Day was a lot of fun because Na Pua O Ka 'Aina got to share with the Mount community an important part of the Hawaiian culture."

Jenny Hernandez

"I have never had my family here for Family Day, but helping on that day and seeing my friends with their families makes up for it. I love seeing their smiles because I know that they are having fun."

Sara Martinez

"Despite the weather, Family Day was a great success. The food was delicious, the dancer were great, and the support from clubs was wonderful. I had a great time organizing and I hope it was as enjoyable for the rest of the student body as it was for me. Special Thanks to the Hawaiian Club."

Huong Ho

"I really liked Family Day because not only do you see your family, but kids too. It gives us a different perspective, not only seeing students and professors all day."

We are family...

"Go Dad Go!" cheers the Ongaco family as Raquel Carbone and Leslie watch.

Working the face painting booth sponsored by Pi Theta Mu, Jessica Hudson gets into the spirit of the lu'au.

In a friendly game of Family Fued, Uncle Joe and his opponent each go for the win.

Wowzers! The fire dancer has another close call.

Showing off their "Aloha Spirit," Erin Matsunaga, Robin Copeland and Makiko Hyodo dance the day away.

I Get Knocked Down, But I Get Up Again

The Doheny Residence Council shows off their perfect basketball shooting form.

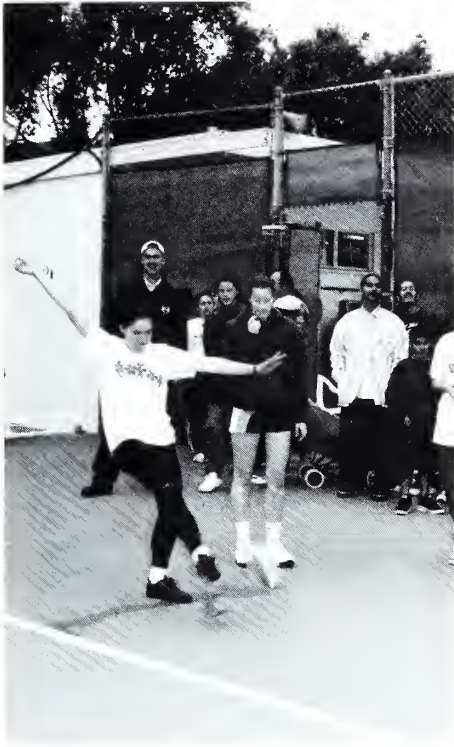

Doing a great job of keeping control of the field hockey ball is Anna Intharathut.

The Wild Things were throwing wild pitches at the softball station.

"Go Jenny Go!" cheered the Blue Crew Wrecking Crew.

In her best football-kicking stance, Nadya Assaf tries to score a field goal for her team The Good Samaritans.

Athenian Day at Mount St. Mary's College

Mount St. Mary's College's mascot is Athena, the Greek goddess of women and strength and the patron of scholars and cities. We affirm that a true liberal arts education, from the time of the Greeks, recognizes mind, spirit and body as part of the whole person. We celebrate this in many ways, but most especially at Athenian Day. This is a time to come together, to test ourselves in a spirit of fun and competition, to honor the bodies which house our minds and spirits. This is one of our finest traditions and each year I am proud to say "Let the games begin!" Jane Lingua, Ph.D., Vice President for Student Affairs

The Blue-Bellied Geckos show that they are still strong after taking first place at Athenian Day.

Siena Day

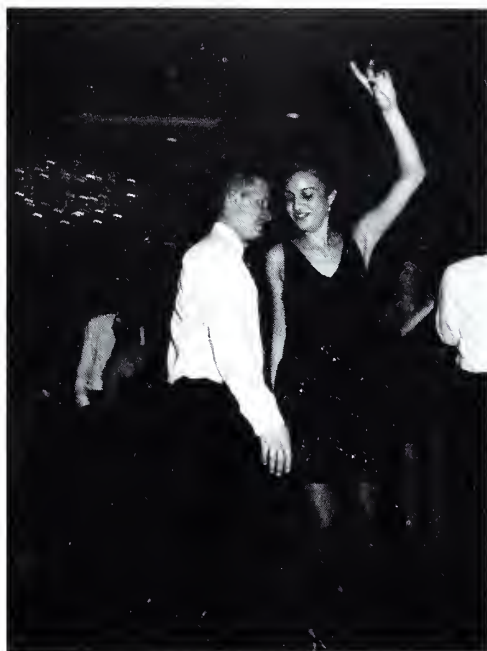

Even heavy rains couldn't dampen our spirits during Siena Day 99. We all moved indoors to enjoy a variety of food, dances and an excellent performance by Great Leap.

Going Formal

Mother/Daughter Tea

Grandmothers, mothers and friends gather to celebrate with their students.

Student Activities Reception

Mistress of Ceremonies, Regina Bills, welcomes everyone to the Student Activities Reception

Congratulating her fellow AACW members on their accomplishments during the 1998-99 school year is Daisy Antee

As Ete Anderson looks on, Erika Jones, Sara Martinez, Kimberly Fine and Jackie Balba read the ASB Oath of Office for 1999/2000.

Thanking Ete Anderson for her support of ASB activities are Regina Bills, Jackie Balba and Veronica Martinez.

Members of Na Pua Oka Aina (Hawaiian Club) react with surprise and delight on being named Student Organization of the Year.

Bravo! Pride Of The Academy

Getting their name tags are seniors Josie Garcia and Mandy Maiorana.

April McClellan and Claudia Almanza share laughs during dinner.

The bacculaureate graduates are proud of their accomplishments.

Sr. Leo Francis accepts her Faculty of the Year award hearing how she influenced Sandra Ramajo.

Associate of Arts Speaker Avygail Sanchez.

Associate graduates show off their awards.

Bacculaureate graduates were represented by Anna Intharathut.

Mary's Day is a celebration in which the college community honors Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Throughout the years, it has been the tradition of the College to honor Mary by recognizing students who have developed their gifts so as to share them in service with the world in which we live. Mary's Day is a time when families and friends join administrators in honoring Mary by celebrating the achievements of Mount students.

Houng Ho performs a dance to honor Mary.

Aah, look at the babies-Lorna Damo and Allison Seid.

"Go in peace, but please go the way" states Michelle Ba

A blast from the past, Anna Intharathut enjoying a non-MSNC meal.

We wonder if Anita Lennon still has her mug from Orientation 1995?

Bits and pieces-people-people
important to you-people important to you cross your life, touch it with love and carelessness and move on.

There are people who leave you and you breathe a sigh of relief and wonder why you ever came into contact with them. There are people who leave you and you breathe a sigh of remorse and wonder why they had to leave such a gaping hole. Children leave parents. Friends leave friends. Acquaintances move on. Friends love and move on. Family love and leave. You think on the many who have moved into your memory-you look at those present and wonder.

People move in and out of each others lives and each leaves her mark on the other. You find you are made up of bits and pieces of all who have ever touched your life. And you are more because of it. And you would be less if they had not touched you-Accept the bits and pieces in humility and wonder-don't question-and never regret bits and pieces-bits and pieces-bits and pieces ...

Farewell Seniors—We'll Miss You!

These serious seniors enjoy their last official meal together.

I'll miss all of my MSMC friends exclaims Raquel Carbone.

What a great meal!

Narleen Narciso and Josie Garcia think fondly about their past 4 years at the Mount.

"Yea! We're graduating!" shout Beverly Matutte, Nicole Casanova and Lorna Damo.

Narleen Narciso, Jenny Hernandez, Michelle Castaneda and Josie Garcia reflect on their time together.

Nursing students get ready for graduation.

"Here, let me help you!" says Laura Canisico.

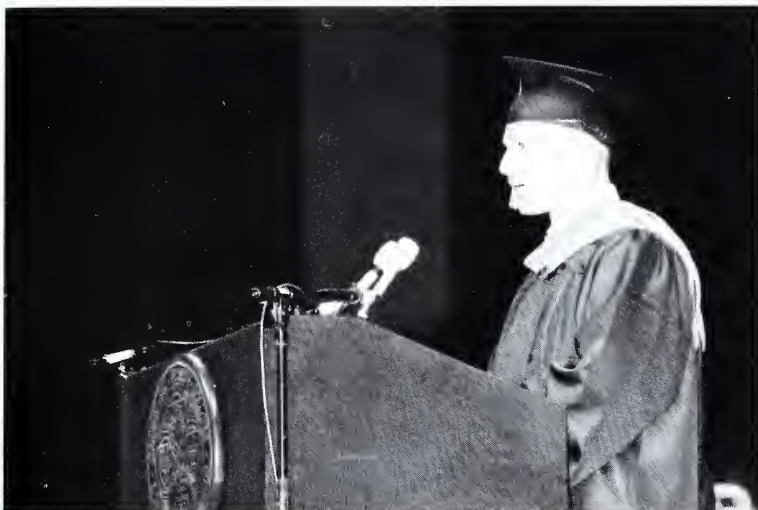

Bernie Robert and Mari Wadsworth offer words of encouragement to Jenny Hernandez before the ceremony begins.

Carrying the Bachelor of Arts banner, Tristen Lam leads her fellow students into the auditorium.

Can I Graduate!

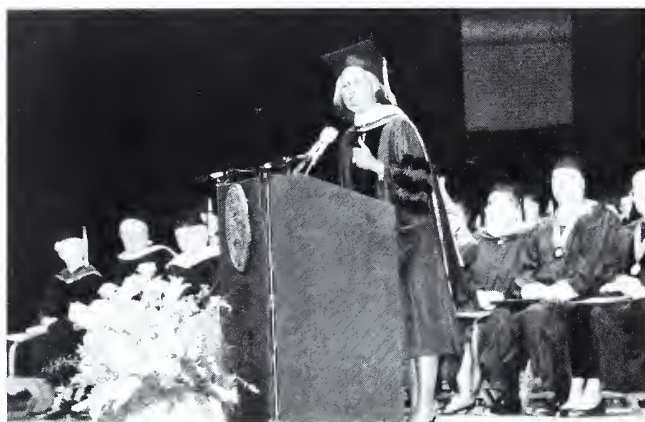

Students listen as graduation speakers offer words of advice.

The graduating class speaker, Roscoe Bigler, encourages all graduates to do the best they can.

The president of the College Sr. Karen Kennelly.

Yvonne Burke, commencement speaker

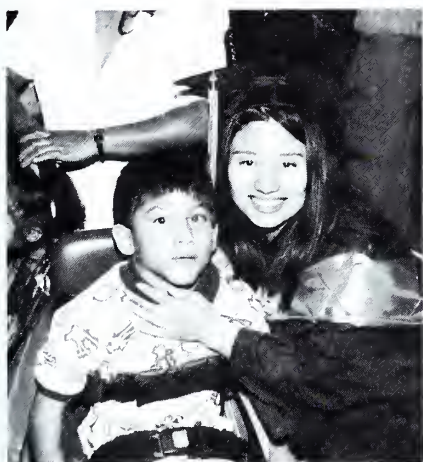

We're on our way!

One of the oldest Mount graduates, Angelino Tabisola proudly displces his diploma.

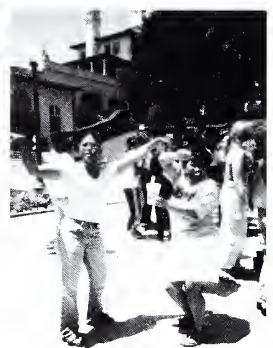

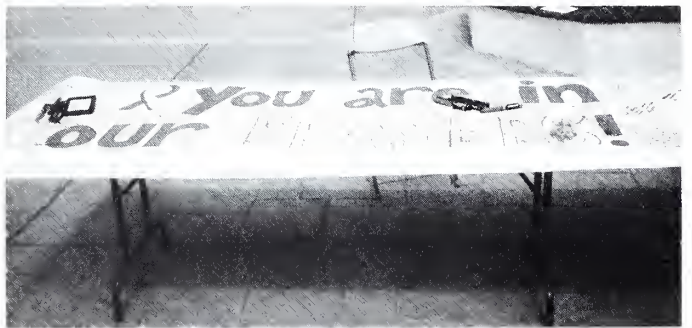

"I made it!" exclaims Susette Aguiar.

THANK YOU ... that's all I can tell you. Thank you for being there for me, for listening to me, and for the moments you gave me here at the Mount. Some of you influenced me in ways that you, and I, didn't even know until now. From Latinas Unidas to RHA, and from my roommates (Vero, Cici, Rissa, and Brooke) to my Best Friends (Gisela and Milli) you all have made me the person I am today.

To My Parents:
How can I say thank you, when mere words cannot express all of the love and gratitude that I have for you.

To My Brothers & Sister:
Thank you for all the free movies, free food and most of all the emotional support.

To My Friends:
Thanks for listening to me whine!! And for encouraging me when I felt times were tough.

To All:
Always believe in yourself, because I believe in you ... Good luck in all that you do and God bless you.

Congratulations Rachel Yolanda Simonelli for a successful freshmen year!--Love, Mom and Dad.

To my brothers and sisters:

I am sorry for being such a grouch whenever it came time to do my homework. However, I hope that I have been somewhat of an inspiration in your decisions that you make concerning your education. I love you.

Cuando dos almas se
quieren
Por mas que se alejen.
No se pueden olvidar.
Por eso cuando you
muera.
Cieltio unda nunca me
ejes
De amar.
Si vas al campo donde
Los muertos resposan ya
Busca mi tumba y alli
Solita la encontraras
Llevala flores muchas
Gadenias y un rosal.
Que sean violetas y
No me olvides y
Nanda mas.

Love your big sis,
Maria Farias

 Each friend represents a world in us, a world possibly not born until they arrive, and it is only by this meeting that a new world is born. — Anais Nin*

 A friend is one who knows all about you and likes you anyway. — Christi Mary Warner*

 So many adventures we've had ... and never been caught by the police, yet. Coyote and Nazreen and their infamous trip to Santa Monica (by way of Venice). Our very own "titanic" accident and the really nice tow truck guy. Ayanna, Roxy and Ileana our nursing damsels in distress. Grace's inspiration for your "glittery" hair. And of course our own "go-go" girl, Nikki ... we all wish you the best of everything and great success! — Rm 106, 108, 125, 200, 209, 211 and one RA.*

I'm glad to have a friend like you! (really I am) Your future patient, Coyote — Congrats! I wish you the best. Now that you have a degree, where are you going to go? I know, I know ... Disneyland! Love Ileana — EvelDats, we're so proud of you! (really we are) What can I say but that I'm so glad that we met, I treasure our friendship. Grace — Evelyn, you are one of my dearest friends & I'm going to miss your warm smile. I hope the best for you and offer my biggest congrats on a job well done. Now pass the tequila honey ... cause it's time to forget what we learned. Love Ayanna, margarita queen — Your mind belongs to you exclusively, take possession of it, direct it to specific usage and make life pay off on your terms, Roxy — Congratulation Evelyn ... I am so happy we met and became fast friends. Nazreen (I have to go back & finish my paper ... "God")

Thank you for all your love & support

You are the Love of my life.

... because I love you

... and the fun begins!

*I miss you so much!
I know I never would have made it
without your support.
I wish you could be here with us, but I know you look down
on us and share in this moment. I*

*dedicate this degree to you, for it is the comple-

These two years have gone by so fast. Thank you for all of your support. I love you so much and always will.

Please continue to support me as I will always support you

Love, Olivia

These past couple of years that we've been together have been the best years of my life. I have never been happier than I am now. Thanks for putting up with me for so long. I used to think that there was no such thing as real love, but now I know there is. I Love You and Congratulations!
